

Lifecycle Notice

V300

Overview

After years of service, Motorola Solutions is announcing that the V300 body camera is being discontinued. The V300 body camera is designed for law enforcement and security personnel to capture critical evidence, enhance transparency, and support evidence management. This product discontinuation affects the North America (USA, CA) region.

All customers who currently are using the V300 will continue to be supported, in accordance with the terms of the contract. Motorola Solutions will continue to support camera refreshes, in accordance with your contract. While supplies last, V300 units will be provided to customers, as applicable under their current contracts. If a customer has a V300 unit under warranty, and we cannot repair or replace it, the customer will receive a V700 or an operationally similar device.
